Early Life

Bon Scott was born Ronald Belford Scott on July 9, 1946, in Kirriemuir, Scotland. His father was a carpenter and his mother was a nurse. Scott had a difficult childhood. His parents divorced when he was young, and he was raised by his mother and stepfather. Scott was a rebellious child, and he often got into trouble at school. He was expelled from several schools, and he eventually dropped out of school altogether.

Scott's love of music began at an early age. He started playing the drums when he was seven years old, and he later learned to play the guitar. Scott formed his first band, The Valentines, when he was 15 years old. The band played local gigs around Scotland, and they released their first single in 1966.
