

Keyboard Works Dover Classical Piano Music: A Tapestry of Timeless Melodies

A Journey Through the Ages: The Evolution of Keyboard Works

The history of keyboard works encompasses centuries of musical innovation and refinement. From the humble beginnings of the harpsichord to the grand presence of the concert piano, the keyboard has served as a versatile instrument, capable of expressing a vast range of emotions and musical styles.

In the Baroque era, composers such as Johann Sebastian Bach and George Frideric Handel explored the intricate polyphonic possibilities of the harpsichord, creating masterpieces of fugal counterpoint and ornamented melodies. The Classical period witnessed the rise of the piano and the emergence of composers like Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and Ludwig van Beethoven, who pushed the boundaries of keyboard technique and musical form.
