The Majestic Picos de Europa

Your adventure begins in the Picos de Europa, a stunning mountain range that forms a natural border between the regions of Asturias, Cantabria, and Castile and León. Towering peaks, verdant valleys, and crystal-clear lakes await as you explore this hiker's paradise. Ascend to the summit of Torre de Cerroredo, the highest peak in the range, and marvel at the panoramic views that stretch for miles.

The Enchanting Basque Country

As you descend from the Picos, you'll enter the Basque Country, a region renowned for its unique language, culture, and gastronomy. Explore the charming villages of Hondarribia and Zarautz, where you can savor the flavors of traditional Basque cuisine and witness the vibrant local festivals. Don't miss the opportunity to visit the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao, an architectural masterpiece that houses a world-class art collection.

Discover the unique culture and gastronomy of the Basque Country.

The Camino de Santiago

Your trek continues along portions of the legendary Camino de Santiago, a network of pilgrimage routes that have been traveled by countless pilgrims for centuries. As you walk the ancient trails, you'll pass through historic towns and villages, encounter fellow travelers from around the world, and experience the profound spirituality that permeates this sacred path.

The Mediterranean Coast

As you approach the end of your trek, the landscape transforms into a Mediterranean paradise. The rugged cliffs give way to sandy beaches and sparkling blue waters. Visit the picturesque towns of Cadaqués and Tossa de Mar, where you can relax on the sun-drenched shores and savor the flavors of fresh seafood. Conclude your adventure in Barcelona, a vibrant city that offers a blend of history, culture, and modern delights.

Conclude your trek on the sun-kissed shores of the Mediterranean Sea.
