Identifying and Evaluating Claims

The first step in managing claims is to identify and evaluate them. This involves gathering all relevant information about the claim, including the contract, drawings, specifications, and correspondence. Once you have gathered all of the information, you need to evaluate the claim to determine its validity and merit. This can be a complex process, and you may need to seek the advice of an attorney or other expert.

Negotiating and Settling Disputes

Once you have evaluated the claim, you need to negotiate with the other party to try to reach a settlement. This can be a difficult process, and you
