Choosing the Right Quilt for Tabletop Turnabouts

When selecting a quilt for your tabletop turnabout, there are a few key factors to consider:

- Size: The quilt should be slightly smaller than the table surface to ensure it doesn't hang over the edges. Measure your table and subtract a few inches to determine the appropriate quilt size.
- Shape: Tabletop turnabouts can be made from quilts of any shape, including square, rectangular, round, and oval. Choose a shape that complements your table and overall decor.

- Style: The quilt's style should harmonize with your existing home decor. Consider the colors, patterns, and fabrics used in your room when selecting a quilt for your tabletop turnabout.

Step-by-Step Instructions for Creating a Tabletop Turnabout

Follow these simple steps to create your own unique tabletop turnabout:

1. Select your quilt: Choose a quilt that meets the criteria discussed above and inspires you to create a beautiful tabletop centerpiece.
2. Fold the quilt: Fold the quilt in half both lengthwise and widthwise to create a small square or rectangle. This will form the center of your tabletop turnabout.
3. Secure the center: Use a needle and thread or fabric glue to secure the center square or rectangle, ensuring it remains folded.
4. Turn the quilt: Turn the quilt over so that the underside is facing up. Fold one corner of the quilt towards the center, overlapping it slightly with the center square or rectangle.
5. Tuck and fold: Continue folding the quilt corners towards the center, tucking them under the center square or rectangle and overlapping each other slightly.
6. Secure the corners: Use a needle and thread or fabric glue to secure the folded corners.
7. Flip and admire: Turn the quilt back over so that the top side is facing up. Your tabletop turnabout is now complete, ready to adorn your table.

Embellishing Your Tabletop Turnabouts
