Amazing Grace is one of the most popular and well-known hymns in the world. It was written by John Newton, a former slave trader who became a Christian minister. The hymn tells the story of Newton's conversion to Christianity and his gratitude for God's grace. Amazing Grace has been translated into more than 100 languages and is sung in churches around the world.

Lyrics

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved; How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come; 'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.

How Great Thou Art is a hymn that celebrates the majesty and power of God. It was written by Stuart K. Hine, a Swedish pastor, in 1885. The hymn has been translated into more than 50 languages and is sung in churches around the world. How Great Thou Art has been recorded by many famous artists, including Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash, and Bob Dylan.

Lyrics

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder, Consider all the works Thy hand hath made, I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee, How great Thou art, how great Thou art! Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee, How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander, And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees, When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur And see the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

Lyrics

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross, The emblem of suffering and shame; And I love that old cross where the dearest and best For a world of lost sinners was slain.

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, Till my trophies at last I lay down; I will cling to the old rugged cross, And exchange it someday for a crown.

I will cling to the old rugged cross, For it takes away my sin; I will cling to the old rugged cross, For it makes me whole again.
