How to Get to Crete

There are two main ways to get to Crete: by plane or by ferry. There are several international airports on Crete, including Heraklion International Airport (HER) and Chania International Airport (CHQ). You can also take a ferry from Athens to Crete. The ferry ride takes about 8 hours.

Where to Stay in Crete

There are a variety of accommodation options available in Crete, from budget-friendly hostels to luxury resorts. If you are on a budget, you can find hostels in the main cities of Crete, such as Heraklion and Chania. If you are looking for a more luxurious experience, you can find resorts in the more popular tourist areas, such as Elounda and Agios Nikolaos.

Things to Do in Crete

There are endless things to do in Crete. Here are a few of the most popular attractions:

- Visit the Palace of Knossos: This is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Crete. The palace was built by the Minoans, a Bronze Age civilization that flourished on Crete from about 2700 to 1450 BC. The palace is located near the city of Heraklion.
- Explore the Samaria Gorge: This is the longest gorge in Europe, and it is a popular hiking destination. The gorge is located in the White Mountains of Crete.
- Visit the beaches of Crete: Crete is home to some of the most beautiful beaches in the world. Some of the most popular beaches include Elafonisi Beach, Balos Beach, and Vai Beach.
- Go wine tasting in Crete: Crete is a major wine-producing region, and there are many wineries that offer tours and tastings. Some of the most popular wineries include the Lyrarakis Winery and the Boutari Winery.
- Visit the Archaeological Museum of Heraklion: This museum houses a large collection of artifacts from the Minoan civilization. The museum is located in the city of Heraklion.

Food and Drink in Crete

Crete is known for its delicious cuisine. Some of the most popular dishes include:

- Moussaka: This is a traditional Greek dish that is made with eggplant, potatoes, ground beef, and cheese.
- Souvlaki: This is a type of grilled meat that is served on a skewer. Souvlaki is often made with pork, chicken, or lamb.
- Dakos: This is a traditional Cretan salad that is made with barley rusks, tomatoes, cucumbers, and feta cheese.
- Raki: This is a traditional Cretan alcoholic beverage that is made from grapes. Raki is often served as an aperitif or as a digestif.

Crete is a beautiful and diverse island with something to offer everyone. Whether you are looking for a beach vacation, a hiking adventure, or a cultural experience, you will find it in Crete.
