Understanding the Fundamentals of Herbalife MLM

Herbalife MLM operates on a multi-level marketing (MLM) model, where distributors earn commissions not only from their own sales but also from the sales of their downline, a network of individuals they recruit and train. The system is designed to incentivize distributors to build and expand their networks, creating a mutually beneficial ecosystem where everyone can potentially benefit.

As a Herbalife distributor, you will have the opportunity to sell a range of nutritional products, including supplements, protein shakes, and skincare items. You will also be responsible for recruiting and training new distributors, creating a team that can collectively generate substantial income.
